

TRANSPORTATION OF DANGEROUS GOODS BY SEA

Duration: 90 minutes

Questions: 20

Price Band: C

Course Outline:

This course is suitable for anyone involved in the transportation of dangerous goods by sea. It includes information on the legal responsibilities for transportation of dangerous goods or hazardous materials via sea and the special considerations that need to be taken.

The course has been written and developed with reference to the International Maritime Dangerous Goods (IMDG) Code.

Learning Objectives:

- LO1: Define dangerous goods and explain how to identify them
- LO2: Describe the legislation for the transportation of dangerous goods
- LO3: Describe the classes and types of dangerous goods
- LO4: Describe packing and safe methods of storage
- LO5: Explain the transportation of dangerous goods by sea
- LO6: Describe the marking and labelling requirements
- LO7: Identify the documentation requirements
- LO8: Describe the loading and handling requirements
- LO9: Explain the safe handling and emergency information

